STRINGS, BRASS, SAXOPHONES ON PROGRAM
FOR 'SHOWTIME '76' SCHOLARSHIP BENEFIT

MISSOULA--

String quartets, a brass quintet and a saxophone quartet will be among the groups performing at "Showtime '76," a scholarship benefit for University of Montana music students, to be held Friday and Saturday, Feb. 6-7, at UM.

This year's "Showtime" performances will be at 7 p.m. and 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the UM Music Recital Hall. Admission will be $2 for adults and $1 for grade school, high school and University students. There will be no reserved seats for any of the four performances. Doors will open at 6:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday.

"Showtime '76" tickets may be obtained in advance at Team Electronics, 1208 W. Kent Ave.; Missoula Mercantile Co., Higgins Avenue and Front Street; Western Montana National Bank, 248 N. Higgins Ave.; the University Center ticket office; the UM Music Building lobby, and the UM Department of Music office. Tickets also will be available at the Department of Music office in the UM Music Building on performance nights.

Dr. Florence Reynolds, a UM music professor, is director of the string quartets; Lance Boyd, who is in charge of jazz studies at UM, is director of the brass quintet, and George Riordan, assistant professor of music, is director of the saxophone quartet.

Esther England, faculty coordinator of the "Showtime" benefit, who is an assistant professor of music at UM, said the performing groups for the weekend "Showtime" performances will include the UM singing Jubileers, a group directed by Dr. Joseph A. Mussulman, professor of music; the UM Opera Workshop, directed by England; Rick and Julie Stewart, a brother-sister music team; members of the UM Jazz Workshop, a group of student instrumentalists under Boyd's direction, and a barbershop quartet composed of UM students.

The UM student comedy team of "Combs and Hartse" will present the between-act continuity for "Showtime '76" by doing Groucho and Harpo Marx comedy routines.

England said the "Showtime" benefit raises about $1,000 annually for scholarships, with awards of $60 to $100 going to a number of students in the Department of Music within the UM School of Fine Arts.
